Martin Wolfenden joins St Andrews Coach Team

Former Zimbabwe International Martin Wolfenden signs for St Andrews

RUGBY St Andrews have made their second major signing this season with former Zimbabwe international Martin Wolfenden joining the Saints as their new forwards coach.

The Midlands 3 West (South) club will be benefiting from the international prestige and experience that Wolfenden can offer, having won nine caps for his country during his career.

He notably had spells with Coventry Rugby, and at Cambridge RFC, and captained South Leicester in National 2 (North) last campaign.

Wolfenden adds to the backroom staff ahead of the forthcoming campaign, with Lloyd Warner recently announced as the club's new head coach.

The second row was renowned for his physicality as a player, and hopes to help provide Rugby St Andrews with an extra edge in the new 2019/20 season.
